MISSION

Bumbershoot is Seattle's Music & Arts Festival, of course. And the largest festival of its kind in North America. But what is it to YOU? Yes, the theme is wiiiiide open in order to allow you to reflect the diverse and creative spirit of the Festival. Maybe you'll create a micro-documentary, an old-fashioned song and dance routine or an animated short. Or if you're feeling really ambitious, you might turn out a full-blown production complete with mind-bending plot twists and a surprise ending. Whatever it is, we want to see it and we want you to share it.
